THE SOUVENIES OF THE PALAIS ROYAL'S "HOLIDAY OPENING" ARE TO BE CONTINUED SO AS TO INCLUDE DECEMBER 1.

Public appreciation of the "Opening" Souvenir, is shown when so many ladies and gentlemen request their continuance until December 1. The recognition of the press is equally flattering. The Post has already indersed us. The Star will probably have something to say of the "Opening" in the news columns this even ing-a reporter this morning interviewed the buyers.

A FEW HINTS FROM THE "OPENING" SOUVENIR LIST

DRESS GOODS. - What more practical Christmas present? What better than a Black Silk Dress! We guarantee our Silks; if they split or crock within six yard, less 10 per cent discount. The discount also applies to all Black Wool Dress Goods, among which are Priestley's, Lupin's and Courtauld's celebrated fabrics. Trimmings and buttons may also be secured at one-tenth off the marked prices. And let us ask: Where eige such variety to select from?

THE fabrics for street and evening wear in the latest Colorings will be found mentioned on the Souvenir List at greatly reduced prices. The popular Bedford Cords in scarce shades—those reduced from $1.75 to $1.50 a yard—will favorably compare with the qualities usually offered at $2 and $2.25 a yard. Even the 85c. Cords are all pure wool-the "Opening" price only 60c. yard. For evening wear we offer the $1 quality Crepe de Chene at only 68c. yard, and in all tints. For waists, coat basques, &c., there are Choice Figured Silks; embroidered on Black Armure, Bongaline and Satin are Flowers. &c., in the levellest tints. Prices $1.35 to $3.98 a yard. See list for other mention of Dress Goods.

Furs. -Another welcomed present. Every reason why you should make a selection on Monday. Not only because 10 per cent discount is allowed, but you obtain an early choice, which is worth 20 per cent more than what is lest the later caller. The Falais Royal Furs are furriers' Furs, but the best Furs are good, better and best. Monday's visitors will get the best. Here is a collection of Skins and made-up garments second to none in this city.

Muffs, Capes, Collarettes, Boas and Fur Trimmings of every description. Children's Fur Sets, too. You may spend from $1 to $50 for a single article in this department with equal confidence. On e-tenth off the price marked on the garment you select is the "Opening" Souvenir.

RIBBONS, Flowers and Feathers enter into one's bollday requirements. If you are making up fancy articles or a hat here is the Ribbon of just the shade you require, and here are Flowers so like nature that those displayed in wases around the store are often thought real. Feathers of all kinds in rare shades. See Souvenir List below for special prices.

In addition three of the seats which the liberals gained at the general election have since become vacant and the liberals have retained them all, namely, the exchange division of Liverpool, Leith, Elgm and Nairn.

Finally, it will be recalled, at South Molton on November 14 the liberals won another victory, the Gladstonian candidate, Mr. Lambert, being returned by a majority of 1,212 over the "dissentant liberal" (unionist), Mr. Buller, the result of the polling being 4.222 votes for Mr. Lambert and 3,010 for Mr. Buller. At the previous election at South Molton Lord Lymington (recently elevated to the peerage on the death of his father, Lord Portsmouth), received 4,041 votes to 2,352 received by Mr. W. H. Walker, a home ruler.

Review of the Market Henry Clews' "Weekly Financial Beview." ssued today, says:

The past week has shown some improvement in the tone of business at the stock exchange and some recovery in prices. The change has been in a large measure due to a relief from the extreme tension lately existing in the European markets.

Apart from speculative movements, there seems to have been an improvement in the European situation in some material respects.

This remarkable occurrence of events of a pacific tendency puts, for the time being at least, a widely different aspect upon foreign affairs from that which lately excited an almost hopeless apprehension on the European markets. From quarters responsible for all that apprehension there comes an open expression of desire for a revision of relations in the interest of peace. It is true it may prove obterest of peace. It is true it may prove obstacles stand between the desire and the achievement, but so much as has transpired in these initiatory efforts warrants a more hopeful attitude in the financial markets of Europe and

During the week Russia has closed her ports gainst the export of wheat, which, added to her previous stoppage of exports of oats, must have the effect of largely increasing the ship-ments of those cereals from our own ports. The large shipments of grain are adding re-markably to the volume of our exports. The current influences are favorable to the stock market. The condition of the bank reserves is conducive to continued ease in money. The trade of the country at large is beginning to show a more distinct response to the stimulus coming from our abundant harvest. The earnings of the railroads are still gaining upon those of last year, and that upon the net as well as the gross business. These several factors are producing a firmer feeling among holders of stocks, and as the market is largely oversold the purchases of the "bears" to cover short contracts are likely to "bears" to cover short contracts are likely to have a favorable effect on prices at an early day. Under these circumstances it would seem safe to buy good stocks on the reactions for early favorable developments culated columns, to call attention to a matter of no small importance. I wish specially to request marketers and consumers to take a decided stand against the sale of undrawn poultry. It is unwholesome to a degree not imagined by most people. Scarcely is a fowl cold in death before organic is a fowl cold in death before organic changes begin, causing the formation of nexious gases, which soon permeate the flesh, ruining its dainty flavor and rendering it unfit to be taken into a delicate stomach. Many persons wonder why they are attacked with griping pains, and often diarrhea, after partaking of poultry. The reason is simply this: They have been eating that which has been—for who shall say how long—a close receptacle for a sickening, poisonous mass! We have smelled chicken cooking the odor of which resembled that of an arcient and much-used hencoop. Faugh! how disgusting! low disgusting!

There is another consideration, though of minor importance. The entrails, head, feet and legs up to the first joint are usually sold with undrawn fowis. These weigh over a pound in a good-sized chicken, the weight of course increasing proportionately with the bird. And please take notice that undrawn fowls are invariably brought to market with bulging craws. The poor things are given all they will cat at their last meal. Corn is heavy and cheap. We—if we are foolish enough to do so—have to pay the full price of good meat for all this repulsive and utterly worthless stuff. It is make all around except with me the last husers and around except with us, the last buyers and sufferers. J. E. F.

The Chicago Markets Dull. CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—The markets were all dull and steady today. In view of the fact that it is Saturday and so close to the end of the month. traders were disinclined to take on new lines. Wheat was actually stagnant during the first hour and a half of business, December selling only at 93 and 93 %, the former being the closing price yesterday. Then some longs undertook to market a little of their holdings and the price sagged to 92%.

Corn was equally steady, May selling throughout the morning at 43 and 42% a48. There was not a single trade in November, though asked, against 74 at the close yesterday. Fatal Besult of a Highbinder Foud

A CURIOUS COMPLICATION.

Murder Propose to Get His Liberty. In the Criminal Court today, before Justice Bradley, Frederick Barber, colored, was brought up from the cells for arraignment. He was convicted of the murder of his paramour, Agnes Walson, by drowning her in the canal in Georgetown on June 23,1888. Messrs. D. E. Cabill and A. W. Ferguson were assigned to defend him. In November following he was con-victed. They filed a notice in arrest of judgment, which went to the Court in Gen-eral Term and it was there held that "the felonious, wilful and with malice afore-"the felonious, wilful and with malice afore-thought drowning of one Agnes Watson" was not a sufficient description of morder, thus sustaining the motion and the case was remanded. On October 3 a new indictment was found in which the defect was cured and he was brought up and plend today.

Messrs. Cahill and Ferguson first moved that he be discharged from the former indictment, which was granted, and then moved Barber's discharge on the ground that the former verdict was in force and effect.

District Attorney Cole said he would file a replication to the plea that the General Term decision had nullified the verdict.

The case went over till Saturday next.
